TWELFTH ANNUAL

Holy Child

AWARDS DINNER

Thursday, March 26, 2020

Handing on the Spirit
The mission of the Society is "to help people believe that God lives and acts in them and in our world, and to rejoice in God’s presence." For CORNELIA CONNELLY, gospel values were at the heart of the Holy Child mission and spirit. So it is no surprise that acceptance, compassion, confidence, creativity, respect, and joy continue to be hallmarks of our educational, social justice, and spiritual and healing ministries.

Today, through our ministries, Associates, alumnae/i, supporters, and friends, we witness Handing on the Spirit in action. Our Holy Child story continues in the tens of thousands of people empowered to reach their full potential and the many partners who incorporate the Holy Child mission and spirit into their lives.

Join us as we celebrate the stories of the Holy Child mission and spirit in action!

Faith in Action Award Recipients of the Faith in Action Award exemplify the characteristics of Cornelia Connelly, the Society’s Founder. Cornelia witnessed day-by-day an awareness of the presence of God and a spirit of joy, active love, generosity, and courage.

Nonie Glennon Murphy, Faith in Action Honoree Nonie has lived a life full of action as a mother, teacher, and volunteer, often in leadership roles. For more than two decades, she was a religion teacher and service coordinator at Oak Knoll School of the Holy Child.
She has spearheaded many initiatives, including as the chair of the first Society of the Holy Child Jesus (SHCJ) Mission Effectiveness Committee (MEC) at Oak Knoll School and the MEC Visiting Committees at other Holy Child Schools.

In her hometown of South Orange, NJ, Nonie chaired and currently serves on the South Orange Community Relations Committee and has served as a board member of the South Orange/Maplewood Community Coalition on Race and the South Orange-Maplewood Adult School, including as president. In recognition of her contributions and deep commitment to the South Orange community, Nonie was named the 2005 recipient of the Beloved Community Award.

In 2016, Nonie became a Holy Child Associate. In retirement, she remains an active volunteer, as a teacher at the Cornelia Connelly Center for Education in New York City and as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at Our Lady of Sorrows Parish in South Orange.

Nonie is a graduate of Chestnut Hill College and holds a master’s degree in Scriptural Studies from the School of Theology at Seton Hall University.
She and her husband, Francis, have four daughters, all graduates of Oak Knoll School of the Holy Child, and seven beautiful grandchildren.

Holy Child Spirit Award Recipients of the Holy Child Spirit Award exemplify the characteristics of service unique to the Holy Child tradition (i.e., faith, justice, action, compassion) by using their gifts to make a difference in the world.

Mairead Jones-Kennelly, Holy Child Spirit Honoree In the Spirit of the Holy Child, Mairead, a 2008 graduate of School of the Holy Child in Rye, NY, has spent most of her professional life in pursuit of social justice and equity for underrepresented communities. After earning a Bachelor of Arts degree from Boston College, she joined the Jesuit Volunteer Corps (JVC). Her work with the JVC took her to New Orleans, where she was a client advocate for the Orleans Public Defenders and saw firsthand the inequities inflicted upon the poor, including in the criminal justice system.

In 2016, Mairead graduated from Fordham Law School, where she was a Stein Scholar and received both the Archibald R. Murray Public Service Award and Student Leadership Award.

Upon graduation, she clerked for the Honorable J. Michael Ryan in the District of Columbia Superior Court before becoming a family defense attorney at Brooklyn Defender Services. In that role, Mairead defended and advocated for mostly poor women of color who were in danger of having their children taken from them. Since December 2019, she has provided legal advice to the New York City Mayor and policymakers as Associate Counsel in the Office of Counsel to the Mayor.

Mairead is grateful to the Sisters for teaching her to care for all communities and instilling in her a deep sense of social justice. She credits School of the Holy Child for helping her become the woman she is today and feels blessed for the friends she made there.
